Scott County announces 175th Anniversary Photo Contest
February 17, 2012

On December 30, 2012 Scott County will be commemorating the 175th anniversary of when it became a county government. One of the many ways the County would like to mark this occasion is the production of a County poster which will contain approximately 12 photos portraying the county. Entrants are encouraged to submit photos for the possibility of inclusion on the poster. Entrants shall list the date, location and be submitted by the actual photographer. Photographs submitted may include a brief description of the photograph. All photos must be taken within the geographical boundaries of Scott County and represent Scott County images. Images are encouraged to demonstrate these themes:

- History/Culture
- Cities/Towns
- Agriculture/Rural Life
- Recreation/Conservation

The contest is open until July 15, 2012.

Submit entries to poster@scottcountyiowa.com

Davenport, IA 52801

Individuals are permitted to submit a maximum of 12 photos (3 from each theme listed above). The winners will be judged on how the photo showcases the overall themes for the final poster design. Photographs will be credited on the poster to the entrant who submitted the photo and receive a copy of the final poster. The poster will be distributed throughout the community. Digital photographs should be taken at the highest resolution possible.

Visit the website at www.scottcountyiowa.com/175th for full details and rules on the contest.
